SFFA’S NOTICE OF WAIVER PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 455(E)

In its Order of December 8, 2020, and again during the status conference of December 17, 2020, the Court notified the parties of an adjunct teaching role he has at the University of Texas School of Law. The Court has asked the parties to consider whether they object to his continued service as the trial judge in this case.

Plaintiff Students for Fair Admissions (“SFFA”) does not believe that the circumstances described by the Court require disqualification under 28 U.S.C. § 455, Canon 3(C) of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, or otherwise. SFFA waives any objection it could make on the basis of those circumstances.

Respectfully submitted,
